12. Early Public and Volunteer Service

1994-2006 San Francisco Unified School District, Private Industry Council, Riot Act Theatre, Bindlestiff Young Artists, and independent studio mentorships, San Francisco, CA
To help fill the gap left by the slashing of arts programs in San Francisco Bay Area high schools, I mentored dozens of young artists through established programs and through my own studio. Mentorships included:

- animation and digital arts
- video and filmmaking
- theatre arts (including acting, directing, producing and design)
- performance arts, including puppetry, mask, clown and ensemble collaboration
- visual arts, including painting, drawing, and sculpture

1989-2006 Bindlestiff Studio, San Francisco, CA
nearly two decades of volunteer service to this organization have included:

- administration, art direction and producing
- grant applications and accounting
- facilities maintenance and upgrades
- workshop and seminar facilitation
- mentorship of young and emerging artists
- donation of entire facility to Filipino American theatre group in 1997
- continuing mentorship of Bindlestiff artists and the Filipino arts community

1986-88 AIDS/HIV caregiver and therapeutic artist, San Francisco, CA
I attended conferences and lectures on AIDS and related topics, assisted with medicine schedules and doctor's information, and was on call for transportation and emergencies. I also guided therapeutic arts projects for patients as a means of expressing the experience of living with AIDS/HIV and associated personal and community losses.
